Trainee Assistant Practitioners for Mental Health Fact Sheet

The role of the Assistant Practitioner

- A trained senior clinical care support worker who competently delivers health and social care to and for people. They have a required level of knowledge and skill beyond that of the traditional healthcare assistant or support worker (Skills for Health, 2015).
- Designed to work across patient pathways and can offer additional flexibility in the delivery of new care models.
- Able to work across professional boundaries e.g. nursing, AHP, social work
- The Assistant Practitioners in England Report (SfH, 2015) identifies that stakeholders can clearly articulate the benefits of introducing the AP role, which include:
  - Contribution improvements in quality, productivity and efficiency
  - Able to work in a range of clinical, community and laboratory situations
  - Increasingly seen in roles that cross health and social care and professional boundaries.

Training

- Band 4 NHS Careers Framework
- Higher Apprentice model with trainees spending their time on day release to undertake 2 year foundation degree training programme
- Core and specialist modules tailored to intended area of practice.
- Care Certificate built into the degree
- Supervised practice throughout training to completion of the Programme - assessed by a trained mentor,
- Standard entry route for an AP is employment at Band 2 in their first year of training, progressing to Band 3 in year two and, on successful completion at the end of year 2, progressing to Band 4 responsibilities.

The Transformational Contribution of the Assistant Practitioner

- Patient Care: supporting transformation of the mental health care pathway by increasing the skill mix of the workforce
- Widening Participation: enabling careers of individuals employed on Agenda for Change bands 2-4.
- Diversification of the workforce: enabling recruitment of individuals with non-standard qualifications, including lived experience.
- Workforce Growth & Retention: expanding recruitment points and extending career pathways in to mental health and registered professions
- Sustainable Work Based ‘Earning & Learning’: the AP role is approved as a higher apprenticeship training route and funded through the Apprentice Levy
